

Robert Knox

Robert is passionate about helping people. He has 25 years of lending experience and uses this to help people achieve their dreams. "I love showing people what is possible. That's the best part of my job – so often people just need good advice" says Robert

Robert is a leader in the mortgage industry. He is a Justice of the Peace, has a Diploma of Mortgage Lending, a full member of the Mortgage and Finance Association of Australia, a member of Finance Brokers Association of Australia, an Associate of the Institute of Financial Services and a Member of Credit Ombudsman Service Limited.

Robert offers his clients the industry's best products, knowledge and strategies.

He provides a choice of over 30 lenders and with 100's of loan to choose from.

Robert can help you with a wide selection of loans including:

- Owner occupied home loans
- Investment property loans
- Low/No doc loans
- Professional packages
- Commercial loans
- Refinances
- Lines of credit
- Margin loans
- Consolidation loans

Robert started his working career in the banks. This equipped him to understand both sides of the mortgage industry. He later joined the police force for 3 ½ years, then he was self employed- running a TAB agency. "My different experiences help me to understand my clients situations." says Robert.

When Robert is not working he enjoys travelling reading and cycling.

In 2006 Robert married Rayna and they honeymooned in Fiji. Rayna has a 5 year old son – and Robert is loving having a son in his life.

Robert's goal is to build a business that is remembered for it's quality service that goes way beyond the call of duty. Judging by what his clients say it seems as though he is delivering that exceptional service...

Thank you so much for all your help with the loan. You both went way above and beyond the call of duty and I really appreciate it.
